Medal to 'hero' from GC

Two Illinois men, one a Granite City resident, were honored last week with lifesaving medals from the U.S. Coast Guard in St. Louis.

Charles E. Morris, 53, 2544 Lynch Ave., and Robert Dieselhorst, 45, of Hichfield, were cited for their rescue attempt of six persons involved in a boating accident on the Mississippi River last July. All but one of the persons was saved.

Morris and Dieselhorst were fishing on the Illinois bank of the river, when they saw an overturned boat drifting downriver. Six people were in the water around it.

Morris entered the water and began swimming for a woman and a girl who had become separated from the boat. He took the woman in tow as she held onto her drowning daughter. Upon reaching shore, he assured that both the mother and daughter were out of the water. Morris then collapsed from exhaustion. He learned later that the daughter, a 20-year-old Berkley, Mo. woman, could not be revived.

Shortly thereafter, he was revived by distress calls coming from the other passengers of the boat. Running in the direction of the voices, he saw a young girl clinging to the boat, almost in a state of panic. He swam out to the boat and was successful in calming her down. After a short rest, he took her in tow and delivered her to shore.

Dieselhorst succeeded in saving one person, with two other accident victims making it to shore on their own. Both men are employed by the HAM Mechanical Co. in Mitchell.

Morris was given the gold lifesaving medal for his efforts and Dieselhorst was given a silver lifesaving medal.

The U.S. Coast Guard also issued Morris a citation. It reads as follows: "Mr. Morris' determined efforts, outstanding courage, initiative and fortitude, while jeopardizing his own life, were instrumental in the saving of two lives. His unselfish actions and valiant service reflect the highest credit upon himself and are in keeping with the highest traditions of humanitarian service."

Morris and his wife, the former Nina Welshan, are the parents of seven children — Charles, Ernest, Michael, Lisa and Patty and Paul Morris and Pamela Hendrickson, all of Granite City. Morris also has 11 grandchildren.

Students, principal say the merger of 2 GC high schools 'successful'

By SUSAN SIGNAIGO-WEICH of the Press-Record

Last year, when the Granite City School District announced that it would be merging the two high schools, some North students and parents warned administrators there would be overcrowding, more fights and a loss of camaraderie with teachers and classmates in the coming year.

But with one semester under its belt, the newly-rejoined high school is, in the words of Principal Gilbert V. Walmesley, "quite a success story."

AND WALMSLEY is not shy about pointing a finger at the group that is responsible for the program's accomplishments. "The kids have made a huge success of this merger," he said. "I'd say there are very few communities in the whole country where a merger of this type could have been pulled off with as little problem as we've had. The kids have proven that they are mature enough to handle a change like this."

Walmesley says another reason for the success of the merger is due to "a lot of pre-planning on the part of clubs and organizations" at the high school. "These groups did a lot of planning, so that the kids felt they were being dealt with fairly," he said. "For instance, on the Student Council, half of the seniors are from the former South High School and half are from the former North."

Furthermore, Walmesley says that the merger has actually saved some programs at the school. "Some programs, such as Chemistry 4A and Origin of Valentine's Day?

By SUSAN SIGNAIGO-WEICH of the Press-Record

Theories about how the name Valentine became associated with the day when lovers send tokens of affection to each other are varied. Most historians, however, debate four different events as being responsible for the day.

The first and most popular belief traces the origins of Valentine's Day to an ancient Roman festival called Lupercalia. During this festival, names of young women were placed in a box and were drawn by eligible young men. Each young man and woman were then thought of as a couple and some even became married.

ANOTHER STORY says that the day is related to two different saints who were named Valentine. One Valentine was an early Christian who made friends with many children. The Romans imprisoned him because he refused to worship their gods. While in prison, the children of the area began to miss Valentine, so they wrote him notes and tossed them between the bars of his jail cell.

The other saint is said to have been a priest who secretly married young couples. The marriages were secret because the Roman Emperor Claudius II, thought single men made better soldiers, so he forbade young men to marry.

Also related to the day is an old English belief that birds choose their mates on Feb. 14.

STILL ANOTHER theory says the connection between St. Valentine and lovers came from a similarity between the Norman word galantin, meaning lover of women and the name of the saint. Historians think Galatin's Day, with the initial g, was frequently pronounced as a v, which led to confusion.

Another aspect of Valentine's Day that involves various stories surrounds the early customs used to celebrate it. Most customs involved ways in which single women could find out who their future husband was going to be.

In the 12th century, young English women who wished to conjure up the appearance of their future husbands would go to the church graveyard at midnight on St. Valentine's Eve. They then would circle the church 12 times, singing a prescribed chant all the while. If they were successful, they would see a picture of their future husband, according to the legend.

ANOTHER POPULAR practice involved pinning live bay leaves to one's pillow. One leaf was pinned to each corner and one to the center of the pillow. Then when the young girl would fall asleep, she would dream of her future husband, according to the stories.

As in the 1700's, Englishwomen wrote men's names down on scraps of paper and rolled each in a piece of clay. The women would then drop these into a glass of water and the first name to come to the surface would be her true love.

Another assurance of a successful dream was to hard-boil an egg, remove the yolk, fill the void area with salt and eat it, shell and all, before going to bed. The girls were not supposed to speak or drink after eating the egg. If they wished for success.

OTHER PRACTICES included the belief that a girl would marry the first eligible male she met on St. Valentine's Day.

Later, their customs were replaced by the practice of drawing names on Valentine's Day. The name picked by the man would become his valentine and he would give her a gift or give a party in her honor. During this time, the men would wear the shirt of their valentine on their shirt sleeves, which is probably where the saying "wearing his heart on his sleeve" came from. In the 1800's the custom of sending romantic messages replaced the practice of giving gifts. Many valentine cards during this era were decorated with dried flowers or jewels and some cost as much as $10.

THESE WERE replaced in the early 1900's by cards called penny dreadfuls. These cards cost one cent and featured insulting sayings on the inside. In an incident concerning these cards, one Chicago post office rejected 25,000 of these valentines, claiming they were not fit to be carried in the mail.

Today people send greeting cards to their sweethearts, friends and relatives. Many people also give gifts, which include heart-shaped boxes of candy and roses.

Most other observances of the day relate to children, who exchange valentines with their friends in most schools, children have a party, where they distribute valentines to other members of their class. These valentines are often put into shoeboxes that have been specially decorated by the children.

There are many ways of saying it, some elaborate and expensive and some simple — "Happy Valentine's Day."

another agency to receive CSBG funds.

Working since mid-December, the committee members stated that they based their decisions on the promise that "the primary goal of any social service agency is the provision of necessary services to its clients. When agency interests and client welfare come into conflict, it is assumed that the latter will take precedence."

The committee also reported that members "felt that a prolonged appeal of the suspension of MCEOC's sponsorship of Head Start would jeopardize both the welfare of over 500 children and MCEOC's reputation as a client-centered provider of services."

Since the only programs still under suspension were those funded through the CSBG, the ad hoc committee determined how those funds could still be channeled into Madison County and recommended the designation of the EOC as the community action agency.

The ad hoc committee also applauded the "efforts of hundreds of MCEOC employees and volunteers who have done so much for the welfare of their fellow citizens."

The six board members present (one short of a quorum) rescheduled the meeting for 5:30 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 23, at Coordinated Youth Services, 1254 Niedringhaus Ave.

Armed with a recommendation from its Grants Committee, the Madison County Board is likely Wednesday to designate itself as the county's "community action agency" and relieve the EOC of its anti-poverty role.

Madison County Board Chairman Nelson Hagnauer told the Press-Record during the weekend that he expects the county board to approve the action Wednesday.

A 15-member board will be designated by the county within the next 90 to 120 days to oversee the programs. Five members will be elected, five will represent the poor and those 10 will select the other five members, Hagnauer said.

EOC should disband, ad hoc group advises

By PATHAY-LUTZ for the Press-Record

The ad hoc committee appointed to counsel the Madison County Economic Opportunity Commission on its future has recommended that the agency be dissolved. Board Chairman John Ervin of Venice accepted the report from the ad hoc committee at a meeting Thursday night in Venice.

The report called for the "de-designation of the MCEOC as the community action agency, and for the designation of (Madison) county as the recipient of Community Services Block Grant (CSBG) funds." The advisory committee earlier recommended that the EOC voluntarily waive its sponsorship of the Head Start program, and other programs run by the agency were also assumed by other agencies.

According to the Illinois Department of Commerce and Community Affairs (DCCA), the MCEOC board could be restructured by Madison County, Madison County could designate EOC as the community action agency and/or re-designate permit listing $350,000 for the work. The tornado had collapsed the back wall of the hardware store and damaged portions of its roof.

The Henry Ross Construction building on Nameoki Road, which includes Granite City Bowl (formerly Tri-Mor Bowl), was issued a $225,000 building permit to repair major roof damage and to extensively remodel the interior of the bowling facility.

Other storm-related building permits issued to businesses and industries included: Crossroads Plaza, roof repair, $30,000; Fox Photo, $4,000 to replace its building; Granite City Glass Co., roof repair, $250; and Long John Silvers Restaurant, $8,500. Repairs were made to other businesses that were not reflected in the annual report.

Storm damage repairs to 117 private residences totaled $461,510. New industrial and commercial projects fell to $1.1 million last year from a $4.6 million total in 1982. The Town and Country Apartments, a $3.6 million project, boosted the 1982 figure.

New industrial projects included a $600,000 permit to construct the foundation and shell for Heidtman Steel Products Inc., which is constructing a steel processing center at Illinois Power's Northgate Industrial Park on Route 3, Ferralloy Corp., 2500 Nameoki Drive, was issued a $500,000 permit to construct a new building that approximately doubled the size of its steel storage facility. A new commercial building per-

Alan Cranston would support steel industry, his son says

"It is imperative we have a strong steel industry in this country, for defense if for no other reason. In a war, if we have to rely on foreign steel, we are in real trouble," Kim Cranston, 32-year-old son of U.S. presidential contender Alan Cranston, commented during a visit to Granite City last week.

Cranston says his father, a Democrat, would try to recreate the joint committee of labor and government leaders and experts in the steel industry to make recommendations "to move steel ahead." He said such a committee was started by former President Jimmy Carter, but was disbanded when Ronald Reagan was elected.

He said his 69-year-old father would strive to balance the interests of environmentalists and of business to keep both the environment and the economy strong. Alan Cranston has a strong environmental record and the League of Conservation Voters last year rated him highest of all candidates then in the presidential race.

Kim Cranston said his father's top two priorities as president would be to bring an end to the arms race and to reduce unemployment. His first act as president would be to call for a freeze by the U.S. on testing and deployment of nuclear weapons. His second act would be to call on the Soviet Union to do the same.

"Unless we deal with those issues, we won't be able to confront the other issues that face the country and the world," Kim said.

The U.S. freeze would demonstrate the country's good intentions and would put pressure on the Soviet Union, Kim said. If the Soviets did not reciprocate, the U.S. could re-evaluate its position, he added.

He said Cranston favors direct nuclear arms negotiations by the president and the head of the Soviet Union.

Putting people back to work would be the elder Cranston's second priority, his son said.

He would favor doing away with the tax laws encouraging firms to merge or leave the country. Laws should encourage companies to retool and retrain employees, Kim said.

Cranston favors lowering the deficit, but does not think domestic programs could be cut. He favors getting out of the arms race and cutting the military budgets.

Also, caps must be placed on the savings from tax cuts that help the wealthy, Kim said.

He said his father has a better chance to beat Ronald Reagan than the two so-called front runners, Walter Mondale and John Glenn.

Cranston has a clearer message and has a better chance of winning the number of states necessary to get the majority of the electoral votes, his son said. Cranston has the best base in the West and could do as well as the other candidates in the Midwest and Northeast, Kim said.

Kim Cranston serves as his father's campaign coordinator in Illinois and is a national assistant campaign manager. He worked in his father's Senate campaigns in 1968, 1974 and 1980.

Alan Cranston's hope is to do well enough in the first primaries and caucuses to reduce the field of Democratic candidates to three, himself, Mondale and Glenn.

Applaud governor's tax stand

The state's largest small-business organization has applauded Gov. James R. Thompson's recent announcement not to seek a continuation of the temporary income-tax increases passed in 1983.

The National Federation of Independent Business—an outspoken critic during tax-hike deliberations—commended Gov. Thompson's decision, saying that he "has demonstrated visionary leadership in determining that the state must tighten its belt, instead of burdening taxpayers with a permanent tax hike."

NFIB-Illinois spokesman Mike Donahue is enthusiastic about the governor's decision not to extend the tax hike past the July 1984 deadline. "This may be the first major step in the governor's community," he said. The announcement was well-received by small businesses who have experienced hardships during the recession, forcing them to lay off valued employees and postpone plans for expansion.

The governor also indicated he would be examining ways to make government more efficient and reduce unnecessary spending. In light of the good news, Donahue cautioned that small-business owners and legislators should be aware of efforts to raise taxes by other means. Legislation is being considered to decouple Illinois law from the federal accelerated-depreciation schedules. "We must continue to fight this type of effort, for small-business owners and the citizens of Illinois alike," Donahue said.

Wayne Birchler, 28, of 2545 E. 25th, charged with possessing beer, was released at the scene upon posting his driver license. Deidiker was booked and then freed on his driver license and $102 bail.

Route 111 overpass at Washington Park closed

The Illinois Department of Transportation has announced the closing of the Route 111 overpass which crosses the Conrail and B & O railroad yards just north of Washington Park.

The closing is due to movement in the substructure of the four-lane overpass. According to the IDOT the structure will be closed for several days, but the exact date of reopening is not known. Detours around the overpass are necessary while repairs are made.

Southbound traffic on Highway 111 is being detoured east on Collinsville Road to Route 157, then south on Route 157 to Interstate 64. Motorists should then take I-64 west back to Highway 111.

Northbound motorists should take I-64 east from Highway 111 to Route 157, then north on Route 157 to Collinsville Road where traffic will be detoured westward back to Highway 111 in Fairmont City.

Quad-Cityans driving to Fairview Heights or Belleville may find it more convenient to take Route 203 south to Interstate 70-55 west to the Interstate 64 exit.

Merger successful

other demanding classes, may have been dropped if it hadn't been for the consolidation," he said. "More students have given these courses a legitimate class size."

ANOTHER POSITIVE aspect of the merger, according to Walmesley, has been an increase in the school spirit. "The school now has a feeling of unity and of being one with the community, instead of splitting up students," he said.

There also have been large savings in terms of utility costs, since there is only one school to heat and light.

And discipline for the students also has been a "dream," says some school administrators. "I thought that the merger of the schools would go well discipline-wise, but it has gone better than my wildest hopes," said Ken Spalding, assistant principal for Granite City High School.

"I have not handled one incident that involved a North-South conflict," said Spalding. "Nor have I received a complaint from any parents who thought that their son or daughter was not getting a fair shake because they were from the 'other side of town'."

WALMSLEY SAID this feeling of being treated fairly had been his "greatest fear" about the merger. "In the realm of sports, especially, I was concerned that some students might not think they were getting fair consideration for the team, because they were from the other high school," he said.

"But this has been kept in balance, it seems, partially due to the former school positions of the coaches — half being from the former North and half being from what was South."

And, in contrast with the students' feelings of a year ago, three students who were interviewed by the Press-Record, agreed with Walmesley. "Nobody fights, in fact it's just the opposite," said John Kindall, a senior football and track participant, who attended North High School for three years. "Really, having the schools merged is better, because you get to meet a lot more people. At North, you could walk down a hall and know most people, but now you might not know everyone you pass."

BECKY JACKSON, also a senior student council member who formerly attended North, said she felt most students said what they did last year because they were upset and thought they could change the board's decision. "But when we all got here this year, we knew we had no choice. This was the school we had to come to," she said. "And at first, it was like being a freshman again, but now I think it's better. Kids who said they were going to fight didn't know what it was going to be like coming here."

Tom Adamitis, a senior football, basketball and baseball athlete who attended South, in any aspect. "A lot of students didn't try out for the sports teams this year, but it wasn't because they didn't want to play for the (former) South team, it was because of the competition factor," he said.

"People didn't try out because they thought they had no chance to make the team with so many people to choose from."

But these students did contend that the merger was not without its faults. They all agreed that the single biggest problem of the consolidation was crowding.

"WE'VE ONLY got seven minutes between classes to get where we're going and sometimes, the halls are so crowded that it's really hard not to be late," said Kindell.

Adamitis said that the increased number of students also has caused overcrowding in some classes, that require lab time.

Despite this overcrowding, the students have learned to cope with the new school and Adamitis even referred to the school as being its own town of residents.

WALMSLEY ALSO agrees that crowded classrooms and other facilities have caused some problems. But the enrollment this year is not the largest it has been in the past. "This year we started out with 3,051 students and we currently have 2,980," he said. "Before the break-up of the schools, we had a class that had 3,200 students in it, so we are not the largest class."

Walmesley also said that he looks for things to improve since the projected enrollment should be down to 2,000 by the year 1990.

"This year has been busy and has entailed a lot of hard work, but it has been worth it," said Walmesley. "We are getting things done with the help of the kids."

WALMSLEY SAID future plans to help complete the merger process will include improvements of the facilities, such as painting and new student lockers.

$1 million for streets okayed

The Madison County Transit District board on Thursday approved use of $1 million to help cities resurface bus routes. A confirming ruling is being awaited on whether the plan is legal.

Lester Miller, former county highway superintendent, was named to supervise the project, subject to County Board approval Wednesday.

Surplus funds from the quarter-cent sales tax are to be used to improve rough streets whose deterioration has been accelerated by heavy buses.

Cities will be asked to provide a small amount of money, or in-kind services, to augment the county expenditure. Miller is to confer with the cities on eligible streets and recommend which should be resurfaced.

He estimated engineering fees at 5 1/2 to 7 percent of project costs, depending on complexity.

Federal bus subsidies have risen, decreasing the amount owed by Madison County Transit to the Bi-State Transit System.

In other action, the board decided to study the need and cost of constructing a garage to house and repair equipment and buses used in shuttle service and paratransit programs. Matt Melucci will submit a proposal Feb. 23 to act as consultant for the garage study.

Chairman William Haine suggested that the next contract renewal with Bi-State include methods by which Madison County can recoup the cost of any inappropriate, poorly administered bus runs.

Accident on Pontoon

Terry M. Hotz, 31, of Maryland Heights, Mo., was charged with driving under the influence of alcohol and failing to reduce speed to avoid an accident at 8:10 p.m. Sunday. He agreed to take a breathalyzer test.

The arrest followed an accident in which Hotz' van allegedly struck the rear of an auto operated by Nancy M. Wofford, 35, of 13 Blue Springs Court, who was stopped in traffic preparing to make a left turn into a driveway in the 1100 block of West Pontoon Road.

Both vehicles were westbound and the impact knocked the Wofford car into a yard at 1104 Pontoon Road, causing damage to the yard, it was noted.

Mrs. Wofford sustained a minor injury in the mishap, reports said.

First testimony on car dealer valuation

First testimony was heard Thursday and Friday in a Madison County grand jury investigation of Board of Review procedures on assessments of some new automobiles.

Granite City Assessor Von Dee Cruse was among those questioned. He said he had been invited to a board hearing at which reductions were sought, but he was unable to attend the hearing. The board reviews township-level real estate values on which taxes are based.

State's Attorney Don Weber has voiced doubt whether the review board has authority to consider lowering assessments in the manner it has discussed. Fred Finck of the board calls the inquiry political, unnecessary and insulting. Both are Republicans and Finck is supporting James Heil against Weber in the GOP primary election.

Board Chairman Robert Harris said the board has done nothing wrong and he would be glad to tell the grand jury that. He, Finck and Mrs. Shirley Voegelge were not called by the jury last week.

A Collinsville dealer initially asked for valuation cuts for all eight Collinsville dealers, pointing to low sales and to assessments exceeding market value. After he made the request, the board decided to look at all such valuations in Madison County.

Inappropriate assessment issue

"Compromise talks" seem to shift rapidly, so definitive conclusions are elusive at this time. But Granite City Steel's assessment of its own importance to local governmental bodies that some comment seems necessary.

We do not seek to label anyone a hero or villain and we do not know enough about the potential litigation to spotlight local management, officials of National Steel, leaders of National Intergroup or officers of United States Steel, which hopes to buy the National Steel group from National Intergroup. The local manager has repeatedly talked of steel-makers' desire to be "good corporate citizens."

What we do know is the current formal stand—a contention that the plant is worth only about $27 million, a $8 million (one-third) assessed valuation. Admittedly not expert about real estate, we nevertheless believe that such a total is much too low.

Certainly, would cripple local-level governmental bodies, which depend to a considerable degree on their bases of taxing property. A district's tax base is the foundation on which it begins all financial planning.

Our point—our request to steel authorities—is that they not move the difference of opinion on the assessment to open confrontation. Pushed hard enough, taxing agencies obviously would hire an appraiser at a big cost and try to defend themselves.

Another giant step for mankind

Only in dreams — and in the Buck Rogers comic strip — have human beings floated freely in space. Until the other day, that is.

We can make another epochal entry into the history of our species with the first "space walk" taken by astronauts without an umbilical tying them to a spacecraft for safety.

The experience of Bruce McCandless and Robert Stewart is hard to comprehend here in our prison of gravity. Their bodies were traveling at 17,500 miles an hour through the emptiness of space 175 miles above the earth, although they seemed to be barely moving in relation to the space shuttle Challenger, which was traveling at the same speed.

They maneuvered themselves with jets from their backpacks in the first demonstration of a technique that will become commonplace when astronauts begin doing maintenance and work on satellites and other orbiting vehicles in the future.

Those events helped restore some luster to an otherwise disappointing shuttle mission. Two com-

But the company need not, ought not, declare war. Something short of a court battle also could do much harm. If the company talks its way into a one-fifth or one-seventh valuation cut this year, and then suggests further reductions in succeeding years, the same fear—a badly deteriorated property base—will face Quad City area and Madison County public officials.

Granite City Steel, meanwhile, although generous enough to finance a new YMCA steam room boiler and student athletes' tote bags, continues its bid for an 82 percent assessment reduction. It is this drastic change that may be debated if the disagreement advances from the county level to a state-level appeal.

We know of no way for the community to rid itself of this unhappy outlook until and unless the plant modifies it. Because protested taxes usually are held in escrow, sometimes for years (which could devastate taxing bodies such as the Granite City School District) threats of such a protest constitute a formidable "club" that can be wielded by a major taxpayer.

The filing of a complaint of the dimensions that has been filed is like picking up that club in a menacing fashion. Will the club be used against local government, whether sadly or angrily, or will it be laid back onto the ground?

munications satellites the Challenger delivered into orbit apparently have gone into useless orbits because of failure of their rocket motors. The launching of a plastic balloon to be used in a shuttle exercise also went awry.

Although the afflicted satellites are beyond salvation by the Challenger, the technology being perfected in the current series of shuttle missions promises eventually to reduce the losses from malfunctioning space equipment.

The day will come when errant satellites like the Westar and Palapa can be retrieved and relocated in orbit by crews operating from the space station the Reagan administration is proposing as our next major space project.

Pushing off for his space walk, Astronaut McCandless recalled Neil Armstrong's words on the moon. "That may have been one small step for Neil but it's a heck of a big leap for me," he said. Step by step, leap by leap, the human species is extending its territory outward toward the stars.

Feels license plate fee hikes 'outrageous'

To the Editor:

I'm writing this letter to you so that my opinion and the opinion of others can be heard in regard to the outrageous rate hikes for the 1984 auto license plates.

I have a old 1964 Ford, 6-cylinder with a horsepower of 29.4, for which I usually pay a fee of only $18. This year, the secretary of state and our state officials in Illinois have raised my fee to $36. Next year it will be $48.

It doesn't matter if you have a Lincoln Continental with a horsepower of 51.2 or a small car with 29.4 horsepower, the price is the same for all. Do you call this fair? There's no justice to it at all.

Maybe the rich wouldn't mind, but I've been laid off of work for four years and can't make ends meet now, especially when people like the telephone company, the electric company, the gas company and now the secretary of state, keep raising prices on things that we poor people need to live, but can't afford to pay for anymore.

What is it going to stop? It will stop when we, the people, use voting power to fight back on election day and vote against all our state officials who are involved in these rate hikes.

For one, but by no means the only one, intend to show my disgust about these prices, when election comes around and the secretary of state and all the state officials involved will surely be excluded from my ballot.

I hope by reading this article, all of you Illinois residents who like me, are tired of getting hit with higher prices, will write to our secretary of state and complain about these outrageous rate hikes.

They say our rate hikes is for highway repairs. Well, I'm sure our fees didn't need to double in cost for what little repair work is done on our highways.

Lawful alternatives to repossession

When a person falls behind in his car payments to a lender, normally the creditor will attempt to repossess the vehicle. "Self-help" repossession by a creditor is permissible in Illinois in this situation. Usually the creditor will attempt to take the car back after the debtor falls two months behind with his payments, but some creditors attempt repossession sooner. Most creditors have a spare set of keys to the car and many lenders will attempt to repossess a vehicle in the middle of the night when the car is in the driveway.

The questions often arises as to what happens to a vehicle after it is repossessed. Normally a lending institution in this situation will sell the vehicle for less than the amount which is owed by the debtor on the original promissory note. The lender will then pursue the original owner for the deficiency amount, which is the difference between the balance owed by the debtor originally and the amount the car sells for. Therefore, the original owner could wind up paying a balance on a car which he no longer possesses.

The Uniform Commercial Code, which has been adopted in Illinois, states that in a case such as this, a creditor must give reasonable notice of the time and place of the sale to the owner of the vehicle before the car is sold. Furthermore, this law provides that the terms of the sale must be "commercially reasonable." The purpose of the law is to allow the debtor to protect his interest in the repossessed property by finding a buyer or by being present to bid on the vehicle himself.

In a recent Illinois case, a credit union repossessed a car and gave notice of the pending sale to the debtor. At the time of the sale, only one bid was submitted on the car, and it was ridiculously low. The lending institution rejected this bid, and held a subsequent sale on a later date. At this time, the car sold for a very reasonable price. However, no notice of this later sale was ever given to the original owner of the repossessed car. In this case, the court found that the failure to give proper notice prohibited the creditor from getting a deficiency judgment against the debtor. Furthermore, the court in this case awarded damages of more than $2,500 to the debtor because the lending institution failed to comply with the law regarding the sale of repossessed property.

Law and you

Attorney at Law

In addition to examining the reasonableness of notice and sale in a case such as this, a debtor also can pursue other avenues in order to eliminate a deficiency judgment or get the vehicle returned. If a debtor files a Chapter 7 bankruptcy, this will normally eliminate any deficiency amount owed. If a debtor files a Chapter 13 wage earner plan, on the other hand, this will generally force the creditor to return the car and accept the back payments over a three-year period.

Mick Topal, Madison
"I'm afraid things will get worse before they get better. You never know what they're going to do (the Soviets). For instance, before Andropov died we didn't hear anything about him or his health. The Soviets are so secretive."

Don McCormick, Granite City
"Relations between the US and the Soviets are very critical right now. I think no matter what happens, we have to initiate a dialogue with the Soviets establish new relations—and solidify our intentions. Beyond that, we'll just have to find out what happens."

Bob Fetter, Granite City
"Even with his (Andropov's) death, I don't think things will change much. I think we need to learn what their new president's feelings will be and then we can go from there. Hangovers also affect drivers' skill level

To the Editor:

Almost everyone would agree that it's unwise to combine drinking and driving. Now, new information says there are dangers still present the morning after an evening of drinking.

The Harvard Medical School Health Letter, commenting on an article in the Journal of the American Medical Association, tells about work done in Sweden that should also be made known in our own country.

Volunteer subjects were given enough alcoholic drinks in one evening to reach a state of intoxication. The next day, after all the alcohol in each person had been metabolized and the blood alcohol concentration had returned to zero, the subjects were given a driving test.

During this "hangover period," there was a 20 percent average decline in driving ability, compared to the normal performance of these same subjects. Also important was the finding that driver impairment had nothing to do with how "good" or "bad" the person felt the morning after.

The message seems clear: Drinking and driving don't mix very well, together or separately.

Objects to way free cheese is given out

To the Editor:

I am very thankful for the cheese giveaways but there are some things that I don't understand.

We people who live in Chouteau Township have a beautiful town hall. There is lots of room for people to sit or stand inside the building. Our taxes helped build it and also help heat it. As anyone ever waiting for cheese knows, you have to wait in lines, sometimes in the cold or rain. I fail to understand why Supervisor Walter Sparks will not allow us to stand inside, out of the weather.

On the last giveaway there was a problem with the ticket numbers. I brought my elderly grandmother and she was right in front of me, there was a 34 number difference in our tickets. When I complained about this, I was told, "If you don't like the way we do it, don't come back."

There are many other township residents with many similar complaints. I urge you to write letters such as mine or call your township office and complain. Perhaps if enough of us speak up, Mr. Sparks will see fit to change the system.

Urges free TV for needy children in SEMC

To the Editor:

I am writing to the parents of Granite City, has your child ever been in the hospital? It is a very traumatic experience for a child.

If you are a low-income family then it gets worse. If you have to scrape together pennies to get to the hospital to be with your child, this is all part of it.

We are all aware of the high cost of parking at St. Elizabeth's, let me bring to light another problem. I was told there was complimentary TV service for low income children. When I applied for it, I was told only if there was good reason, such as long term hospitalization or surgery, as they do for other local government TV helping the child to recover.

While this might seem extreme, an uncooperative inefficient utility could be taken by eminent domain. Then the local government could ask for competitive bids to the utility services.

Hopefully, utilities will learn to economize as other business services.

County sewer board to work out pay agreement with Glen Carbon

By SUSAN SIGNAIO-WEICH
of the Press-Record

Morris Miles, chairman of the Madison County Board's special sanitary sewer committee, told board members last week that he would attempt to work out an intergovernmental agreement with Glen Carbon this weekend.

The agreement, which is related to the conversion of the Granite City wastewater treatment plant to a regional plant, would provide for Glen Carbon's payment of $97,484 to the county for improvements made in the sewer district. A regional agreement would have Glen Carbon's sewage routed through the county sewer district. This would require improvements to the county system, so it can handle the increased flow.

ACCORDING TO John Arnold, controller for Sheppard, Morgan and Schwab, Inc., engineers for the upgrading project, a total of $341,000 worth of improvements will be necessary to upgrade the sewer system. Of these costs, only $224,308 (75 percent of the eligible costs) will be paid by a grant from the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency (IEPA). This leaves $97,484 to be paid for by Glen Carbon.

According to Arnold, an agreement needs to be worked out immediately, so that a resolution may be passed by the Madison County Board at its regular monthly meeting Feb. 15.

Arnold said that IEPA has set the end of February as the deadline for intergovernmental pacts, so if an agreement is not reached now, the county board would not be able to approve the resolution until its March meeting.

"I DON'T anticipate any problems over this agreement with Glen Carbon, but the actual agreement has to be done," said Miles. He said that Glen Carbon has agreed from the beginning that it will pay for any improvements necessary to the county sewer system, so the village can get into the system.

Arnold said all of grant documents necessary for the Glen Carbon agreement are drawn up. These documents include a study of costs and materials for the sewer upgrading.

In other business, Tom Chura of Chura Engineering, told board members that he is calling in another engineer to approve the plans for the Timberlake Development in Pontoon Beach. Chura said that, although he is a registered professional engineer in Missouri, he has not received his certification from Illinois. He said he is in the process of getting that license, but, until then, he will have his plans approved by another engineer, Bob Griscorn. Griscorn is licensed in Illinois.

CHURA'S certification had been questioned earlier by the board. Board Attorney Irvin C. Slate Jr. had issued Chura a letter that said the board could not approve the Timberlake engineering plans unless he proved he was certified in Illinois.

Also at the meeting, Robert Stone Glass and Installation, 23rd Street and Nameoki Road, was the low bidder for the replacement of a plate glass window in the sewer board of office. Board members approved the replacement of the window at a cost of $237.

Knights Templar inspection Saturday at Masonic Temple

Sir Knight Herschel Otto Thomas, eminent grand swordbearer of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar, of Illinois, will direct the annual inspection of Emmanuel Commandery No. 81 on Saturday, Feb. 18, at the Masonic Temple, 20th Street and Cleveland Boulevard.

Sir Knight Robert Blackwell of Dow, Ill., is the commander of Emmanuel Commandery. The commandery received its charter in 1912 and has 235 members.

The public is invited to attend a brief ceremony at 7 p.m. during which the inspecting officer will be formally received, visiting dignitaries introduced, and the Sir Knights pass in review.

The Knights Templar is an order of Christian Freemasons who seek to perpetuate knightly virtues of courtesy, benevolence, and hospitality. Their charities include student loans and an eye foundation which pays for eye operations for qualified applicants.

Nine candidates will be created knights of the order during the day's events. The Order of the Temple is the culmination of York Rite Masonry. Only Knights Templar and

Permanent sponsor sought for Head Start program

The department of Health and Human Services has announced that $720,005 is available to provide a Head Start Child Development program for 394 children in Madison County. These funds are available for a one-year period with an annual renewal.

A grant application kit may be obtained by writing German S. White, regional program director, Administration for Children, Youth and Families, Office of Human Development Services, 300 South Wacker Drive, 15th Floor, Chicago, Ill. 60606.

The deadline for the receipt of the application is April 13. The original and two copies of the application are to be sent to: James Nordin, Supervisory Financial Operations Specialist, Office of Fiscal Operations, Office of Human Development Services, 300 South Wacker Drive, 15th Floor, Chicago, Ill. 60606.

Head Start is being offered on an interim basis by Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville until a permanent sponsor is found. Classes resumed at all Head Start centers on Monday.

MOTORIST INJURED

Credit school purchase would be considered

Want to buy one of the Granite City schools being offered for sale? Cash to the full amount won't be necessary.

The Board of Education decided last week that the schools—for which sealed bids are to be sought in the next few weeks—may be paid for in cash or over a five-year period.

With five-year amortization, a contract for deed will be provided.

Interest on the unpaid balance—after a 25 percent down payment—will be one percent below the prime rate at the time of the purchase.

Currently idle schools are being offered. An exception is Nameoki School, which will be retained by the school district except for a 100x265-foot campus area sought by the adjacent church for parking purposes.

Ways to legally restrict use of the 100x265-foot site to avoid commercial projects were discussed by the board, which noted there could be bids from others as well as from the church.

No restrictions were decided on, but the board indicated it is ready to exercise its right to reject a sale if it appears to be inappropriate.

All seven members have shown willingness to sell part of the campus to the church for limited use, and there was general opposition to any other disposition of that land.

School and church space traditionally have been shared for parking of autos, depending on the day and time of an event.

Nameoki School may be put back into service at some future time if finances and enrollment justify its reactivation. In the meantime, minimum heat is being provided in it and other idle schools; doors and windows have been enclosed for protection against weather and vandalism.

First Granite Bancorporation Inc. and record earnings of $1,244,321 in 1983 and record total assets of $152,410,080 on Dec. 31. Both the First Granite City National Bank, topping $135 million, and Colonial Bank of Granite City, exceeding $16 million, had growth of 10.5 percent during the year.

Melvin C. Wilmsmeyer, president, said the multi-bank holding company had a 24.3 percent rise in net income, including earnings of Colonial since May 31. Assets had a similar increase of 24.2 percent for the year.

He cited successful marketing of the relatively new Money Market Deposit Accounts and (Super) NOW Accounts, adding: "For 1984, earnings prospects appear quite favorable, given the anticipation of continuing economic expansion and the concurrent expectation of increased loan demand."

The board has declared a quarterly dividend of 20 cents per share payable March 15 to March 8 shareholders. The projected 80 cents for 1984 would be an increase of 18.5 percent over 1983.

Valentine party for Paul Simon scheduled

Granite City Township Assessor Von Des Cruse has extended an invitation to all friends and supporters of Paul Simon to attend a Valentine's day party on Tuesday, Feb. 14, at the United Steel Workers Hall, 2334 E. 25th Street starting at 7:30 p.m.

Cruse, Granite City area coordinator of the Simon for U.S. Senate campaign, said the party will mark the kickoff of the television phase of the campaign. Simon will make a brief television address to voters in the state at 8 p.m. Tuesday. The program will be carried locally on Channel 30.

According to Cruse, the Valentine's party is sponsored by the local chapter of the Simon Key Tie Club. The theme of the party will be "Paul Simon, we love you," Cruse said. "This is in keeping with the esteem and affection in which Paul was held during the years he represented our area in the state legislature. I feel it is very important to the success of Paul's campaign to make a strong showing in his old legislative district.

"We are the people who have known him the longest and who hold him in the highest esteem for his distinguished record of public service. It is my personal belief that Paul has the potential to go much further. I feel it is in our own interest to see that he has the opportunity to exercise his experience and talents to the fullest in the leadership of our country. Cruse also stated that complimentary refreshments and snacks will be served at the party. "Anyone who is at all interested in the Simon campaign is urged to come out and meet with the local coordinating staff, friends and supporters and to enjoy the fellowship of the occasion," he said.

SIUE rent to increase

The Southern Illinois University board of trustees approved rent increases of about 12 percent for SIUE effective Sept. 1, and studied a possible 6.5 percent tuition hike for SIUE and SIUC.

Students at the meeting opposed higher rent, saying it could force many of them out of the Tower Lake apartments. University officials denied that a "profit" is likely. The board cited rising costs of utility and support services and a loss of tuition funds used for housing in the past.

Cost per student for a two-bedroom, four-person apartment will climb from $109 to $122 a month. Family housing, now ranging from $280 to $355 monthly, will cost $315 to $410. The complex houses 1,200 single students and 160 families. Carbondale dormitory room and board rates will rise $80 a year to $2,304.

Tuition action is planned next month. The increase has been proposed by the Illinois Board of Higher Education. Yearly undergraduate tuition here would advance from $882 to $929. Graduate tuition from $945 to $1,006 and dental school tuition from $1,734 to $1,848.

Roxana Wins

Matmen finish third in Edwardsville Regional

By ALAN L. GERSTENECKER
Sports Editor
of the Press-Record

EDWARDSVILLE — The Roxana High School wrestling team proved what most of the area wrestling enthusiasts had suspected all season long — the Shells are the best team in the region.

Roxana convincingly made a case for itself Saturday afternoon by winning the Edwardsville Regional Wrestling Tournament, outdistancing second place Edwardsville by 29 points. The Warriors finished third, 9 1/2 points behind the Tigers.

"I thought all our guys did a commendable job. I thought possibly Cotter might have been able to pull out another championship. Although, I can't complain. I'll settle for the two."

Bill Schmitt
Warrior wrestling coach

Roxana's victory secures the Shells a shot at winning the first Illinois High School Wrestling Team Championship. But first, the Shells must defeat two other team regional champs this Tuesday at the Granite City High School Team Sectional Tournament and survive the following weekend's state tournament (see related story.)

"On their way to the regional championship, the Shells qualified 11 athletes for this weekend's sectional tournament to be held at Granite City High School. Runner-up Edwardsville had third-place Granite City each qualified seven for the sectional.

In all, Granite City had two champions, three seconds and two thirds. Securing divisional titles for the Warriors are Greg Nemeth, 119 pounds, and Mark Dowdy, 135 pounds. Nemeth, on the way towards his championship, beat Roxana's Shawn Zipprich 9-6, an old nemesis. Prior to Saturday's third matchup of the year, each had won once. Zipprich won when the two met in the holiday tourney, but then Nemeth avenged that loss in January in the Hazelwood Central Quadrangular Meet.

Dowdy, the Warriors' most winning man on the mats this year, creased to his championship from his top-seeded position. The cool 155-pounder pinned Roxana's Mark Rosecrans in 44 seconds in the second round before decisioning Wood River's Paul Massaralla 15-8 for the championship. Dowdy is currently rated third in the state and is 17-1 this season. His only loss was a defeat earlier in the season when he strained knee ligaments.

Second place finishes went to Jeff Cotter, 98 pounds; Mark Whitaker, 145 pounds; and Steve Knog, 167 pounds. Third-place finishers for the Warriors are Gary Mann, 105 pounds, and Tom Sparks, 138 pounds.

"I thought all our guys did a commendable job," said Warrior Coach Bill "Red" Schmitt. "I thought possibly Cotter might have been able to pull out another championship. Although, I can't complain. I'll settle for the two."

In addition to those who qualified for the sectional, Schmitt also thought Mike Lewis, his 132-pounder, would have also advanced to the sectional. Lewis finished fourth, losing to the eventual 132-pound champion, Civic Memorial's Dallas Zimmerman and Edwardsville's Bob Riess in the wrestlebacks.

For the Warriors, their third-place finish was just about where many expected them to finish. Although, Granite City gave Edwardsville all it could handle.

Through the first two sessions, the Tigers held a slim one-point lead over the Warriors, 121-120. Only by virtue of its eventual champions at 105, 145, 185 pounds and heavy-weight, were the Tigers able to pull away from the Warriors in the final session and secure second place.

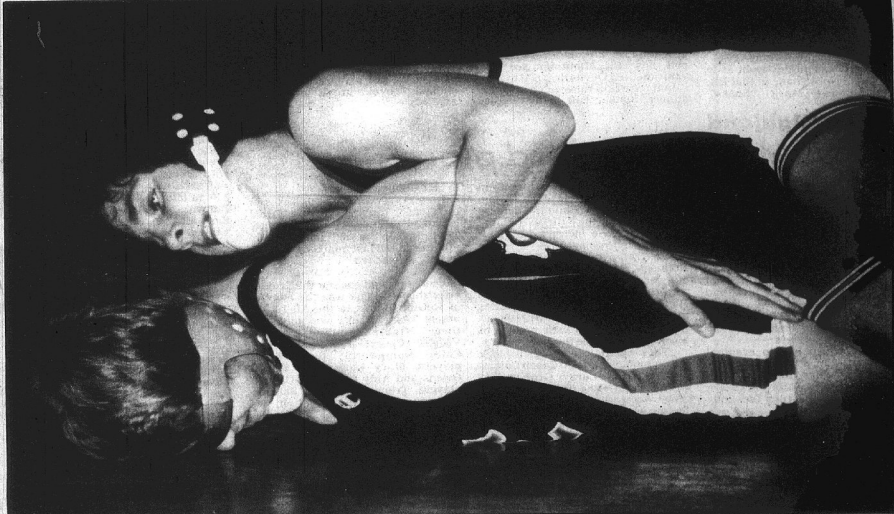

But it could have been closer stated both Schmitt and Tiger Coach Babe Stahlhut. Stahlhut qualified 11 athletes for this weekend's sectional tournament to be held at Granite City High School. Runner-up Edwardsville had third-place Granite City each qualified seven for the sectional.

It wasn't a good day for McMahon. In addition to losing the match to Cotter 12-0, the 98-pound Tiger had to contend with loose headgear. Cotter went on to finish second and qualify for the Granite City High School Sectional.

Speedy Trojans whiz by Warrior cagers 62-40

By CHARLIE SKAER
of the Press-Record

MADISON — The Madison Trojans turned a power outage into a power performance Friday evening, electrifying the Granite City Warriors 62-40.

With 42 seconds remaining in the first half, officials stopped the game when the Madison scoreboard went dead.

Warrior center Scott Cant had driven down the lane a few seconds earlier for an easy basket to tie the score at 22-22, when the scoreboard apparently short-circuited while Madison brought the ball out.

According to school officials, Friday night's mishap was the first malfunction of the 19-year old clock during a game.

"It gave us a chance to regroup," said Madison coach Larry Graham.

"Our full-court pressure got the lead for us. It really hurt them. We were able to drop our defense back and concentrate on Gray. But Cant had a field day."

Larry Graham
Madison basketball coach

"Who knows? Maybe we might have just fired up a shot and missed. "Granite City could have come down and got the lead. When you're playing from behind, it's a different ball game."

Instead, Madison talked about working for the high-percentage shot while custodian Warren Smith brought the scoreboard back to life with a flick of a circuit breaker.

Granite City coach Don Deterding didn't complain about the scoreboard problem.

"I don't think the clock going out had any effect on us," said Deterding. "We knew we just weren't going to let Banks get the lay up."

Banks didn't get a lay up, but he did get the inside shot that put the Trojans on top at halftime, 24-22.

In the third quarter, it was the Warriors that lost their power. Granite City could muster only one basket and a free throw compared to Madison's 19 points.

The Trojans' press proved most effective, as the Warriors committed eight turnovers during the quarter.

"You may call it pressure, but I just call it frustration," said Deterding. "It was just a matter of too much quickness."

Speed has always been an asset for the Trojans, an advantage that Deterding said is hard to combat.

"There's no way to practice against it," he said. "We just don't have that kind of speed during scrimmages. So in a game, it's almost like you're practicing against the speed even though you're playing at the same time."

The Warriors played most of the game without the services of high scorer Kurt Hyla, who had to leave the game in the first half because of a flu-type illness.

"He was very sick," said Deterding. "But he came from Madison and really wanted to play. Had it been any other team, I wouldn't have started him. But he earned it."

Graham had nothing but praise for the Warriors.

"People refuse to believe that they have a good ballclub, mainly because of their past," he said. "But they're consolidated now and it's helped. They're young, so they're going to be one of the top ball clubs next year."

Last second victory eludes GCHS

BELLEVEILLE — With 11 seconds on the scoreboard and Granite City losing to Belleville East by one point Saturday, Warrior Coach Don Deterding huddled his players for instructions on the final play of the game.

During the timeout, Deterding told center Scott Cant to run crosscourt and set a screen for guard Jeff Gray. After losing his defender because of the screen, Gray would receive the inbound pass, turn around and shoot the winning basket.

Granite City would pull off a thrilling come-from-behind victory, 54-53.

But as the Warriors' fans know, things don't always go as planned.

Instead, Cant and Gray lined up on the same side of the court and the screen couldn't be set. Instead, Gray received the inbound pass while

At Bunker Hill

Red Devils lose to Minutemen hoopsters

By AL BARNES
for the Press-Record

BUNKER HILL — Coach Clinton Harris, in his first year as head basketball mentor at Venice High School, found out why they call the gym at Bunker Hill High School "the pit" Friday night as his Red Devil charges fell to the Minutemen, 61-67. And, there wasn't any doubt as to who was the No. 1 snake in that pit, either. It was Mark "Snake"

Johnson, diminutive (5'7") point guard of the red-hot Bunker Hill cagers of veteran Coach, James Halka, who sparked the host Minutemen time and time again to their important victory.

Going into the game, Venice was ranked No. 3, the Bunker Hill as greatest No. 4 in the Press-Record poll, now, the Minutemen are 18-4, while the Red Devils dropped to 15-6. In the curtain raiser, Coach David James' Bunker Hill junior varsity edged Rick Everage's Devils, 50-42. Victor Jackson paced the losers with 15 points and Frank Trost poured in 19 for the little Minutemen. James was a starter (1973) for SIU-Edwardsville.

The main game had the jam-packed crowd yelling and screaming five to 10 minutes even before the opening tip-off as both sides of the gym, hosts and visitors took turns cheering ever move of their favorites.

It got even worse as the game got underway. The word "bedlam" would be an understatement.

Venice jumped out to a 14-12 first-quarter lead, but it was a very costly advantage as the Devils were forced to foul and, when the second half rolled around, Bunker Hill enjoyed a steady parade to the free-throw line where the game was actually won. Bunker Hill was 23 of 28 from the charity line compared to Venice's meager five of 10. From the field, Venice stood out with 23 two-pointers as compared to 22 for the victors.

Venice's dead-end guard, (5'7"), Eddie Salmond led all scorers with 25 points on 12 field goals, seven of which came in the throat clutching final period. Salmond fouled out with 1:15 minutes left in the game and that was the end of the Devils' hopes of pulling the game out.

Bunker Hill's Snake Johnson just missed (by two points) from capturing scoring honors for the Minutemen, but it was his deadly accuracy early on which kept the Red Devils fighting to catch up.

Johnson made 18 points as he hit, on six of seven from the line, but he made the first four shots he took in the game—all from outside—and then missed an easy layup on which he was fouled. He calmly made the two shots.

The Minutemen's two tall players, Mark (16 points) and Mike (20 points) Ramsey gave the winners an offense which seemed to bother the Venice defense. When the Devils' defense concentrated on stopping the Snake, the Bunker Hill players simply lobbed the ball over the heads of the much smaller Venice defenders and Finn and Ramsey calmly whirled and put the ball in the hoop.

Larry McGhee (14 points) and Phil White (14 points) helped Salmond carry the offensive load for Venice.

How about the future, this season, for Venice and Bunker Hill? Said Coach Halka of Bunker Hill: "We could meet in the sectional at Vandalia and, if we do, man it should be a terrific game." The Devils' coach, Harris, new to the area, said merely: "We have to get there first, but if we do, I think the neutral floor, as far as fouls are concerned, would, I think, give us a slight edge."

An idea just how tough Bunker Hill is can be gained by realizing that the Madison Trojans barely edged the Minutemen by four points earlier this campaign.

The Bunker Hill victory was Halka's 447th to go with 162 losses, one of the best in the state of Illinois.

Asked how that compared with Vergil Fletcher's overall record at Collinsville, Halka grimaced and answered: "No way, but in my senior (1961-62) year at Gillespie High we went into Collinsville and upset them, 68-65, when the Hawks were No. 1 ranked in the state. The slender Halka was too modest to say that he was the No. 1

Illinois prep cager college recruiters wanted to sign that spring. The Little Napoleon, Eddie Hickey of St. Louis U., won the signature and Halka decided to play for the Bills. But, when Hickey, that same season, decided to transfer to Milwaukee's Marquette U., young Halka opted to transfer to Eastern Illinois U., where he started for three years for the Panthers.

Halka volunteered this about the naming of a head coach at Southern Illinois at Edwardsville: "Madison's Larry Graham, I believe, has earned the shot at the job. Man, he's won two Illinois state championships and, overall, his record is the very best. He has great rapport with all high school coaches not only in the entire state of Illinois, but in the St. Louis area as well. He's a winner."

Asked for his recommendations might be slightly colored by the fact that he wouldn't have to face a Graham-coached Madison High team if the job went to Larry, the Bunker Hill coach laughed and said: "Yea, maybe you've got something there."

Defeat Highland

Trojanettes grab third place title

By PAULA WISE
for the Press-Record

HIGHLAND — The Highland-Madison matchup, that had been predicted since the beginning of the St. Paul Invitational Basketball Tournament, finally came about Saturday. Unfortunately for the two top-seeded teams the game was not the championship final as most had expected.

Instead it was the game to determine third place as both teams lost their semi-final matches.

Madison, which lost to eventual tournament winner Triad Wednesday night for their first loss of the season, rebounded Saturday take a 35-28 victory away from the Lady Bulldogs.

"I knew if we could run them we could tire them out," said Madison Coach Carol Cole. "I knew they couldn't run with us."

Coach Cole was also pleased with her team's ability to handle Highland's center, 6-foot 2-inch Kathy Kampwerth.

"They did an really good job controlling their big girl. They didn't let her get the ball and they kept the pressure on her the whole game," Coach Cole said.

The Trojanettes completely dominated in the first half. After leading 10-4 after the first quarter, Madison held Highland to just two points in the second quarter.

The Madison press, which has caused so many teams difficulty in the past, again worked to the Trojanettes' advantage. While the defense was forcing the turnovers the Madison offense increased its half-time lead to 15 points, 21-6.

The Trojanettes played the Lady Bulldogs almost even in the third quarter. Two illegal screen calls against Madison worked in Highland's favor. The Trojanettes also had some problems with the officials in regard to their method of blocking out on free throws.

"They wouldn't let the girls block out on rebounds," said Coach Cole.

"I talked to (Larry) Graham last week and got some drills for rebounding. We worked hard all week on feeling where your person is and getting in front of them. But for some reason they wouldn't let us do that today," Cole added.

Highland tried to mount a comeback in the fourth quarter but it was too late for the Lady Bulldogs. Four 25-foot jump shots by Highland's Cheryl Rehkemper late in the fourth quarter pulled the Lady Bulldogs to within eight, 34-26.

Although the game almost became a replay of Madison's fourth-quarter loss to Triad, Coach Cole was pleased with her team's performance.

"We were trying to hold the ball," said Coach Cole. "I figured if we had the ball they couldn't score. I told them that unless it was a lay up not to take a shot.

They made some stupid passes in the fourth quarter that allowed Highland to get back in the game. That had to be the longest four minutes in the last quarter I've ever lived," Cole added.

Another bright spot for the Trojanettes this weekend was the naming of Regina Banks to the All-Tournament Team. Banks was joined by three Highland players, Tina Vogele, Cheryl Rehkemper and Kathy Kampwerth; three Triad players, Mary Kate Long, Ronda Owens and Amy Gire; two Carlyle players, Trene Pinnell and Jeannie Polmann; Monyve Wright of Assumption, Cheri Mueller of Westcliff, and Shelly Ethridge of Mater Dei. Barb Pernes of Mater Dei took the Most Valuable Player honors.

Redwings prove too powerful

By PAULA WISE
for the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — The Alton Redwings girls basketball team, led by junior forward Kathy Snipes, trounced the Granite City Warriors 84-40 last Thursday night.

Snipes, who has averaged 35 points per game this season, continued her string by putting in 42 points for the Redwings. Most of her points came from under the basket as she used her 5-foot height to grab the offensive rebounds and convert them into baskets. The tallest Warrior, Debbie Brandt, is only 5-foot 8-inches and had little hope of stopping Snipes.

The Warriors did a good job of controlling the Redwings early allowing them only 14 points in the first quarter. A Lisa Lilley basket at the buzzer made the score after the first frame 14-6.

"If we had hit anything in the first quarter we would have been in the game. The girls were taking the good shots but they just wouldn't hit," said Warrior Coach Gordon Galbreath.

In the second quarter the Redwings used the full court pass to put an end to any Warrior hopes of an upset.

The Warriors pulled to within six, 18-12, before the Redwings started their drive. Alton scored the five points before Lilley scored for the Warriors. Eight more Redwing points made the score 31-14. Alton added 11 points in the final two minutes of the half, making the half time score 42-18.

Despite the early routing, Alton Coach Mary Boeland was not impressed with her team's play. "The first four minutes we didn't do anything," said Coach Boeland. "Other than Kathy they're all inexperienced."

However, Coach Galbreath saw things differently.

"They had a couple of guards who could really handle the ball," said Galbreath. "They also had that other tall girl. It wasn't just 54 (Snipes) getting all the points."

The Warriors played the Redwings almost even in the third quarter. Lilley added nine of Granite City's 13 third-quarter points. The Redwings managed only 16 points, making the score 58-33.

In the fourth quarter Galbreath removed all of his starting players. The result was disastrous for the Warriors as they were outscored 26-7.

"I played the reserves for a quarter to give the starters a break," said Galbreath. "With the tough schedule we have coming up, I didn't see any point in letting them get beat up."

The tough schedule Galbreath referred to includes games this week with Belleville West and Wood River. The West game will be held in Belleville and will begin at 6:30 p.m.

The Warriors will also be competing in the Collinsville Invitational Tournament next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The Warriors will meet host Collinsville in the first round. Last year the Granite City Steelers won the consolation round of the tournament.

For State Parks

DOC is seeking campground hosts

SPRINGFIELD — Camping enthusiasts willing to serve as volunteer campground hosts at Illinois state parks are being sought by the Department of Conservation. The positions, available statewide, were created to provide service to visitors.

A campground host receives free camping privileges and $1 per day in exchange for performing such duties as greeting visitors, collecting campground fees, answering questions about the parksite, promoting its care and maintenance, and encouraging compliance with park rules and regulations, according to Marcia Casper, coordinator of the campground host program.

Host positions are open to individuals or couples 21 years of age or older who are able to provide their own camping equipment and are willing to guarantee a minimum stay of one week at the campground. They may serve longer.

Candidates accepted for the program are eligible for tax benefits and for volunteer insurance during their service.

Unlike the thousands of other campers who visit Illinois' state parks each year, campground hosts become directly involved in the operations and programs of their favorite park, Casper pointed out.

"Serving as a campground host is an ideal opportunity for any enthusiastic camper to fully enjoy the outdoor life and, at the same, help preserve our state's natural and cultural resources," she said.

Applications are accepted year-round and positions are filled as they open.

Application forms and further information on the program may be obtained by phoning (217) 783-6753 or writing in care of the Illinois Department of Conservation, Campground Host Coordinator, Bureau of Lands and Historic Sites, 524 S. Second St., Springfield, Ill. 62706.

In Soccer Sheridan named All-American

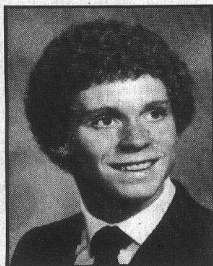

NEW YORK—Matt Sheridan, a defender for Granite City High School's soccer team has been named to the sixth annual Parade Magazine All-America High School Soccer Team.

Sheridan, 5'11", 160 pound senior was selected as one of the top prep players in the country by Parade's national board of collegiate soccer coaches and recruiters as well as national and regional coaches from the United States Soccer Federation.

Sheridan, a sweeper back for the Warriors, led his team in goals scored this year with 12 from defensive position. Sheridan, incidentally, was a leading point getter at his defensive position for the Parade American team.

Sheridan becomes the ninth athlete from Granite City to be named All-American. In addition to Sheridan, Granite City All-Americans include Bill Hency, formerly a teammate of Sheridan's, Tony Pierce, Randy DeKousse, Steve Trittschuh, Mark Goldschmidt, David Fernandez (twice), and Rick Fernandez.

According to Sheridan's coach, Gene Baker, Sheridan was more than just an integral part of the Warrior squad this season.

"Matt was the franchise," Baker began. "He got us as far as we did. He's a very responsible, multi-faceted young man in addition to being a team leader during our merger year."

Baker went on to call Sheridan perhaps the most sought after soccer athlete that he's ever coached.

In addition to his prowess on the soccer field, Sheridan is equally proficient in the classroom. Currently rated fifth in his class of 700, Sheridan is undecided between studying engineering or medicine.

He's the son of Phil and Dee Sheridan of Granite City.

Thirty-nine athletes from 15 states were named to this year's squad. Eight of these athletes were members of the United States National Youth Team in the Granatkin Tournament, held in Leningrad, last month.

Other top players selected to this year's team include: Tabare Ramos of St. Benedict High School in Newark, New Jersey, who is Parade's Player of the Year; Dan Walters of St. Thomas Aquinas H. S. in Pleasanton, Missouri; Troy Snyder of Fleetwood High School in Fleetwood, Pennsylvania and Kris Peat of Vernon High School in Vernon, New Jersey.

Repeaters named to this year's squad include: Tabare Ramos, Troy Snyder, Steve Nikodem, Dan Walters, Michael Agnew and Tommy Stone.

A Hockey Check

HOCKEY CONTRIBUTION. Usually hockey checks are not well received, but Tuesday evening members of the Granite City High School hockey team were more than happy to receive this check from the Granite City Jaycees' President Norm Burgess (second from right.) Burgess presented the check to Ray Romine, (right) trainer of the club, for team coach Gary Henson who was not present. Also pictured are assistant coaches Chris Hentser (left) and Jerry Roderick. The check of $1,000 was donated by the local Jaycees to help defray part of the club's $2,225 annual expenditures.

can't fault anyone. We made a run back at them.

"We hate to lose, but they earned the victory. We gave it our best, that's all you can expect."

Granite City, down by nine at the start of the fourth quarter, used a full-court press to get back into the ballgame. Jeff Gray also proved effective in the final stanza, scoring six of the Warriors' final eight points.

Gray made his last basket of the game on an amazing shot that he arched high above the long reach of East's 6-11 center Gary Leonard. The ball swished through the net and Granite City moved to within one point, 51-50.

The full-court press went back into action, but Leonard stood open in the back court. After catching a long pass, the gangly center went in for an attempted slam dunk.

Amazingly, Jeb Blasingame hustled toward Leonard and leaped into the ball. He blocked the shot, but his body's momentum forced him to push Leonard after the shot. While Blasingame went sprawling onto the floor, the referee whistled him for the foul.

The foul was in vain. Leonard made both free throws, putting the Lancers back in control, 53-50.

Jeff Gray dribbled the ball downcourt and launched another long shot. He missed, but Gerald Booker put the rebound in to make the score 53-52.

The referees then whistled East's Brian Hamilton on a seldom-seen offensive foul — pushing the defensive player during the incoming pass. With 40 seconds remaining in the game, Granite City worked the ball around before calling the final timeout.

"We felt pretty certain who they were going to go to," said East coach Don Otness, referring to Jeff Gray. "We were going to do our best to make it uncomfortable for him."

The loss puts Granite City at 9-13 on the season and 2-2 in the Gateway East Conference. The Warriors may also be hurting this week, as Scott Cant injured his ankle during the game and Kurt Hylla is recovering from the flu. Hylla didn't play in Saturday's loss.

Attends seminar on new hearing aid law

A. W. Davis, owner of Tri-City Hearing Aid Service, joined about 300 other dispensers and interested persons who are associated with physically fitting hearing aids at a meeting hosted by the Illinois Society of Hearing Aid Specialist at the Hamilton Hotel near the O'Hare Airport, Chicago.

Present was a member of the attorney general's office and two from the Illinois Department of Health and Education. This team gave an analysis of hearing aid laws passed in 1983, which become effective July 1, 1984.

The law requires all persons who physically fit or dispense hearing aids at retail to be certified by the state of Illinois by Jan. 1, 1985. The penalty for non-compliance to any of its rules and regulations is very costly, the speakers said.

Nothing in this law prohibits a corporation, trust, association or partnership from selling hearing aids at retail, providing their employees who physically fit and dispense hearing aids are certified under this law.

"There are many changes in the way we have been doing business. Some of them may cause the cost of hearing aids to go up some, but it all adds up to a better deal for the hard of hearing," he said.

"People who call at your door after Jan. 1, 1985, should be asked to show their card stating that they are certified. If they have none, you should call the police at once. Be sure the card says 'certified by the state of Illinois,'" Davis concluded.

Peat, Marwick to study GCHS office procedures

Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Co. was chosen by the Granite City Board of Education last week to analyze Granite City High School office and secretarial tasks and equipment, and to recommend procedural modernization.

The 6-1 vote specified that the cost is not to exceed $9,500. A $7,000 study proposed by Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville was briefly explained at the meeting by James Miller of the SIUE faculty.

Board members said they chose PMM over SIUE because of a past PMM study that proved unusually helpful to the district—and because that firm already performs some of the district's accounting and auditing work and thus is familiar with Granite City schools' record keeping.

The study will seek to show staffing needs and will indicate which existing record procedures could be eliminated, streamlined or accomplished in new ways, such as through data processing.

Treasurer Kelly Hogan, who voted against the hiring, said afterward there is a need for the study but that he is not convinced this is the precise way it should be conducted. Negotiations between secretaries and the district on a proposed 1983-84 contract are continuing.

Children's Home Society is auxiliary program

The Children's Home Society of Missouri, a licensed, private, non-sectarian, statewide social agency located at 9445 Litzinger Road, St. Louis, and its programs was the topic of a presentation by Cindy Murley, youth chairman, at a monthly meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Fleet Reserve Association, Greater St. Louis Unit 267.

She announced the Children's Home Society provides a variety of services including adoption and counseling, as well as interim care for infants prior to permanent adoption or other placement.

Their programs include adoption believing that the birthright of every child is the security of a permanent home with a loving family. The CHS has been vitally involved in adoption throughout its existence. Consideration for the needs of the child and the wishes of the adoptive applicants, and places the child where personal, intellectual, capacities, physical characteristics and other relevant background data assure the best possible condition for both the child and adoptive family.

Also, post adoption-the society is increasingly being called upon by adult adoptees, birthparents, and adoptive parents to provide post-adoption counseling services. This may be for the purpose of obtaining non-identifying information regarding the adoptees family of birth, it often includes counseling with various parties to an adoption about the issues of search and reunion.

Basics with Babies is a parenting program for pre-adoptive and adoptive parents. Six to eight couples attend classes once a evening a week for four consecutive weeks, to help prospective adoptive parents become more aware of what is involved in preparing for and caring for an infant. It also promotes understanding of parental roles and needs.

Nursery-The society maintains a small, attractive, and well equipped nursery for short-term care for babies from the time they are released from the hospital until placed with their adoptive parents.

Crib care residential-respite and Hospice Center-CHS is licensed to work with families who have infants with developmental disabilities. The home provides interim crib care, between the hospital and home, for developmentally impaired infants that require special nursery care, gavage feeding, exercise stimulation, and special observation. Hospice care is available for the terminally ill infant. The purpose of the program is positive-to ease some of the initial trauma of families trying to cope with the fact of a birth defect in their new born, and through counseling, to help parents bond with the child while learning to deal realistically with medical facts of the infant's condition. The home also provides respite care, the speaker explained.

In addition the society gives counseling and infertility and pregnancy and also psychological counseling and family therapy.

Miss Murley explained that not all who seek the services of the society can afford to pay the appropriate fees. Those who can, do. However, the bulk of the society's operating expenses is met by donations from outside sources.

Friends and members can send tax-deductible contribution to Cindy Murley, 6 Cedar Glen Court, St. Charles, Mo. 63301, and those who wish additional information can contact her at 314-441-8281.

Mary Lee Donnan, president of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Fleet Reserve Association, opened the meeting by having color bearers parade the colors and the chaplain offering prayer. Members recited the pledge to the flag and the LA FRA preamble.

Mary Lee Donnan served as pro tem secretary for the session and Chaplain Jane Trapp reported on the death and services of Barbara Wynn, an auxiliary member, and Shipmate Pete Federspiel, husband of unit member, Evelyn Federspiel.

A report for the USO fund raising committee was given noting the members raised $176 for the organization by selling "entertainment '84" coupons.

Ada Matras of Granite City, gave a report on the kick-off of the new fund raising project for the FRA National Disaster Relief Fund to assist servicemen and families who experience a disaster in their community.

She also requested the members save labels from eight products and return them to the chairman.

The president closed the meeting with the LA FRA rituals and invited all to attend the social hour where refreshments were served by Cindy Murley and Janet Mueller.

Niedringhaus PTA to sponsor monthly events

Monthly events and fund raising projects for Niedringhaus School students was the topic of discussion at the PTA board meeting held last week, with Mrs. Sandy Hargrove, president presiding.

School yearbook orders are being taken as well as advertisements for the book, the president noted. She added, the books cost $4 each and advertisement boosters are available at a cost of $1 each. Those interested are advised to call 876-8898.

Other events announced include a skating party at Stoppokates Rink on Monday, Feb. 13, since there will be no school. The rink will be open from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. for students and families only.

Also, the next regular PTA meeting is set for 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Feb. 21. Boy Scouts will be in charge of the flag ceremony and the Brownie Scouts will dispose of the old flag.

There also will be a discussion on the blood drive set for March 14-15, at Central Christian Church, 2020 Johnson Road, under the auspices of the Area PTA Council. A film on the necessity of blood drives will be shown and donors and volunteer workers will be solicited.

A planning meeting for the school picnic scheduled for May 18 will be conducted at 8:45 a.m. Feb. 27 and anyone interested in the event is invited to attend, the president noted.

A fund raising candy sale will be in progress from March 9 to the 19 with deliveries set for March 30. Prizes for the top salesmen are to be awarded in a school assembly on April 13.

Students will perform in a special musical program, under the direction of Miss Patricia Dineff, at the April 24 membership meeting, which will also include the election of officers for the forthcoming year. Installation of those elected for the 1984-85 year take place on May 18.

The president said the theme for reflections this year will be, "I Have A Dream" and pupils will submit art work, music and literature for the program.

Mrs. Hargrove announced tee shirts can still be ordered but the PTA must have a minimum order of 25 before sending in the new application.

A discussion was held on purchasing two new record players for the school with a final decision to be made at the general meeting.

The next Area PTA Council session is set for 7 p.m. on March 20, Mrs. Hargrove noted.

E. A. KARANDJEFF Chairman
GRANITE CITY TRUST
Q. I purchased a new car and timed the purchase to take advantage of a rebate being offered by the manufacturer. The rebate was $800. Now I'm wondering whether or not I may have made a mistake. Must I report that $800 rebate on my Federal Income Tax return as income and, if so, where do I enter that amount?

A. You haven't made a mistake. According to tax experts, you should not report the rebate as taxable income. Your $800 rebate is considered a reduction in the price of the automobile. The rebate can come into the picture for tax purposes, however, if you use your car in your business. Inasmuch as the $800 rebate effectively reduces the price of the car, it will also have the effect of reducing the amount of the investment tax credit, as well as the amount of depreciation you are able to claim on your Federal return as a business expense. If the latter case applies to your situation, you may want to consult with your tax adviser before filing your 1983 return.

DIVORCED CATHOLICS MEET ON FEB. 17

Southern Illinois Divorced and Separated Catholics (SIDSC) will meet Friday, Feb. 17, 7:30 p.m. in Eckhard Hall at St. Boniface Church, 110 N. Buchanan, Edwardsville.

SIUE has novel idea for Valentine's gift

A group of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville (SIUE) students has come up with a twisted approach to Valentine's Day with a "Thorns to You" campaign.

Members of the Public Relations Student Society of America (PRSSA) at SIUE are taking orders and will be delivering ribbon-laden, roseless thorn stems to designated people on campus today and tomorrow.

The idea for a Valentine's campaign was suggested by PRSSA member Jim Grandon. He said something different should be offered to SIUE students as an alternative to candy and flowers on Valentine's Day.

"Thorns" will be sent for the broken-hearted or as just a gag for Valentine's Day. Orders will be delivered anonymously or signed by the sender.

Some "deserving" people on campus are not going to experience Cupid's piercing arrows, but the penetrating stab of roseless thorns, Grandon said.

be located adjacent to the existing bathhouse and consist of a main pool, an attached diving pool, and a separate wading pool. A concrete apron will surround the complex, a cyclone fence will enclose the entire area.

The main pool will measure 82.5 by 60 feet with a graduated depth of Venice agrees to pay alderman for some firefighting chores

By VALERIE EVENDEN
of the Press-Record

The Venice City Council has unanimously approved payment of $684 to First Ward Alderman Phillip Daniels, monies withheld for his duties as a volunteer fireman. The alderman had received no fireman pay since early 1979.

The authorization was granted at the last city council meeting and followed the reading of a report prepared at the council's request by David M. Levy, fire department secretary.

THE MONIES are in payment for fire duty during specific dates and not for the entire period of time that Daniels continued in a suit against the city that he is entitled to.

The current pay for a fireman is $9 a call and included in the $684 total is payment for two fire calls between Dec. 1 to Dec. 19, 1978, which represents an 18-day period prior to Daniels being appointed as alderman in that year.

Also itemized are 17 calls in 1982 from July 1 until Nov. 30 and 10 calls between Dec. 1, 1982, and Nov. 30, 1983.

THE LATTER time periods relate to Daniels' duty calls after the Illinois passed into law by the Illinois

General Assembly that permits holding the position of alderman and fireman simultaneously, according to Levy's report to the council.

The funds still being contested by Daniels as due to him are for fire calls between Dec. 19, 1978, when he was appointed alderman, and July 1, 1982, when state legislation clarified the issue.

A recent court ruling apparently clearing the way for Daniels to collect all monies withheld was announced at the council's Jan. 10 meeting. At that time, the council voted to authorize City Attorney Lawrence T. Hartman to enter an appeal against the court decision.

AFTER reading the report, Mayor Tyrone Echols stated, "This seems to be in order and he (Daniels) is entitled to this."

The mayor noted, however, that not included in the report are fire calls in 1979, 1980 and 1981. "This still remains the period in question and this (matter) has not been settled by the courts," he added.

Although a precise figure on the amount of money involved was not announced, it was estimated earlier that in excess of $5,000 may be at issue.

Preliminary hearing set on charges against Mehelic

A Dec. 12, 1983, issue of the Press-Record was headlined "Man suing Mehelic finds that justice can be slow." Now, two months later, one of the court cases discussed in that article is about to proceed.

Nameoki Township Highway Commissioner Frank Mehelic, indicted by a county grand jury March 17, 1983, is scheduled for a preliminary hearing at 1 p.m. Wednesday in the county courthouse in Edwardsville. Mehelic has been charged with a felony count of official misconduct and seven misdemeanor counts of theft of services for allegedly using township labor and materials for personal purposes.

His accusers include Warren T. Grugget and his wife, Verdine, who live at Lake Drive and Route 162. They contend that in May 1981, Mehelic had road crews install a drainage line under Lake Drive which drained Mehelic's nearby horse-breeding field onto the Grugget's property, flooding two acres upon which the Gruggetts planned to build a house.

For two years, the civil case has dragged on and Associate Judge Charles V. Romani Jr. ruled Aug. 26, 1983, that the Gruggetts' case should be continued until the final disposition of the criminal indictment against Mehelic. For Mehelic to testify in the Gruggetts' case would jeopardize the highway commissioner's Fifth Amendment right to refuse to testify on the grounds it could incriminate himself in the criminal trial.

At Wednesday's preliminary hearing, a date for a trial may be set. Mehelic has remained free on a $35,000 recognition fee, which requires the posting of only $2 cash.

Valentine concert Tuesday

Area residents are invited to celebrate Valentines Day at a Powell Hall concert featuring the sweet swing sounds of Guy Lombardo's Royal Canadians directed by Art Mooney.

The "Sweetest Music This Side of Heaven" comes to St. Louis at 8 p.m. Valentine's Day, Tuesday, Feb. 14.

Arrest 3 after fight at tavern

Three men were arrested at 11:55 p.m. Friday when police responded to a reported fight at the Tip Top Tavern, 18th and State streets.

Officers were told the men had been fighting in a restroom and then came out into the bar and allegedly started throwing bar stools around, breaking beer bottles and making threats to customers.

Arrested and charged with disorderly conduct were Curtis E. Holmes, 28, of 1534 Fifth St., Madison, Aaron I. Holmes Jr., 19, and Michael A. Holmes, 18, both of the same Madison address.

Active warrants alleging battery also were served on Curtis and Aaron Holmes while in custody.

Michael Holmes was released at 2:05 a.m. Saturday after posting a $52 cash bond.

part of the St. Louis Symphony Society's "Variety Series."

Mike Shannon of KMOX radio will serve as master of ceremonies for the event.

Selections for the evening will be chosen from hits made famous by the distinctive sound of the Royal Canadians, such as, "Seems Like Old Times," "Boo Hoo," "Cigarette," "I'm in the Mood for Love," "Mack the Knife" and Guy Lombardo's signature tune, "Auld Lang Syne."

Art Mooney, whose own group had significant success during the Big Band Era, will contribute many of his own hits to the program.

More music will also be drawn from dance band standards of the swing years, including hits associated with Glenn Miller, Tommy Dorsey, Artie Shaw and Duke Ellington.

Tickets to this performance are priced from $6 to $18 each. Call 1-314-534-1700, extension 293, for regular or student ticket information.

ALLEGED OPEN BEER IN CAR

Timothy F. Garner, 22, of 3450 Sheridan Ave. was arrested Thursday for transporting open beer in an auto at Nameoki and Johnson roads.

News notes

The Illinois Federation of Teachers has endorsed for reelection State Rep. Sam Wolf and Cong. Melvin Price.

Gov. James R. Thompson and officers of Illinois American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees finalized a three-year contract Friday covering 26,000 state employees—mental hospital workers, prison employees, clerks, direct service and paraprofessional employees, and maintenance workers. Yearly pay hikes are 2.5, 4.25 and 5 percent.

The U.S. House Subcommittee on Public Lands and National Parks voted Thursday to expand the Jefferson National Memorial across the Mississippi River to the East St. Louis riverfront. Up to $2 million is listed for land purchase and $75,000 for a visitors' center.

The apparent last hurdle in expediting construction of Interstate 255 was cleared last week when the Appellate Court at Mount Vernon rejected delaying property title transfers to the state.

Repair of the Route 111 bridge over Washington Park railroad yards is to be completed late this week or next week. Traffic is being detoured to Route 167 by way of Interstate 64 and Collinsville Road.

WE ARE interested in putting a grip on that $15,000 and move on to someone else," Mayor Echols said in response to a question about the cable TV project.

"I know the weather has played a part (in the lack of cable installation), but they owe us the courtesy of telling us what is going on. We should charge them storage for that junk down in the garage. It's in the way and maybe we should look into the legalities of confiscating it. The sad thing is that people are getting disinterested in cable television," he said.

The city went through many trials in its quest for cable TV service until Sun Cable System began installing an underground cable system near the Bissell Street Apartments last Oct. 6.

AFTER several days on the job, apparently it was decided by the franchising manager to discontinue laying an underground cable network, citing the expense, and return to the original plan of an overhead system.

Some trenching equipment was left in the city garage area and no one has returned since that time, it was learned. Efforts to contact some of the company officials by telephone have been fruitless, Mayor Echols noted.

THE USED piano gimmick.
This is the story of the suspecting piano buyer who answers the ad "take over small monthly payments and spinet console piano. Can be seen locally." You write and include your phone number.
In a few days, a truck arrives at your home with a piano inside. The piano is your own. Brand new, near-dead, but the clever salesman assures you it is a first quality piano. After you sign your name to the sales pitch, the piano is rolled into your living room. The salesman returns to his warehouse or "whatever" 50 to 200 miles away, and that's the end of your piano. What do you do when the piano starts buzzing, the keys start sticking and it possibly goes out one six times a year? You may spend a fortune on that cheap piano better than probably paid more for than if you'd visited the reliable established piano dealer in your own area. Service after the sale is most important for the piano owner and the lease considered by 15.
In average buyer. Don't let this happen to you. This
